DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Three stories high and two bays wide, this building is laid in common bond. The first story has been considerably altered. A bay window storefront (consisting of three sheets of sheet glass) has a door in a flat-arched metal frame to its right. Above the first story is a canvas awning. A projecting sign spanning the width of the facade appears above the awning.

Windows in the upper stories are all double hung 1/1 with stone sills and flat-arched wooden lintels. The roof cornice is brick, and it supports a drainpipe.
